Shipping from Dudley lab

UPS, FedX and DHL: are all about the same price and we have had equipment damaged by them all.

Truck: for large shipments (over 300 lbs) we have had very good service, little or no damage and quick service.

Air Cargo: very good to overseas destinations if you can pick up at the air port, to your door is a lot more cost. Great service for heavy or large items for overseas destinations.

US Mail: for small items (under 50 lbs) Mail is very good, no damage and good service.

Air Mail: has been very good to overseas destinations, EU nations for small items (under 50 lbs). This depends to a large extent on the quality of your home countries service.

Cost:

UPS, FedX and DHL about the same.

Truck: good for heavy or large items.
